SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK-

-The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion. (Proverbs 28:1)

-During the day the Lord went in front of them in a pillar of cloud to show them the way, and during the night he went in front of them in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel night and day. (EX. 13:21)

POINTS TO PONDER-

-After the service a woman went to the preacher, "Pastor, I hope you don't take it personal that my husband walked out during your sermon." "Oh, I'm so glad you told me that, because it upset me terribly," said the preacher. "What caused him to leave, if I may ask?" "Oh, he's been sleepwalking since he was a little kid."

-My wife chewed me out at the company picnic a while back. "Doesn't it embarrass you that people have seen you go up to the buffet table five times???" "Not a bit," I replied. "I just tell them I'm filling up the plate for you!"

-Problems are only opportunities in work clothes.

-A friend is like a tube of toothpaste. They come through in a tight squeeze.

-Be kinder than necessary, for everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle.
