NOTES FROM PASTOR –

The headline of an article "Tail Was Short. Snake Was Not." caught my attention and so I read the entire article. It seems that there was a lady in South Africa who passed a haystack one day, and saw the tail of a snake. She took a stick to kill it and before she knew it she was wrestling with a 17-foot python! Gratefully, a man quickly came along to kill the snake with a fence post; otherwise it would have crushed her to death. You may think your sin is just a little sin, but I want to tell you that it is part of the same snake. Sin murdered Jesus, and sin will crush you. Your only hope is salvation through Jesus Christ.

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." 1 John 2:1-2 (LWF MIN. AT LWF.ORG)

SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK-

-Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

POINTS TO PONDER-

-If you plan for a decade, plant a tree. If you plan for a century, teach the children.

-What can be swallowed, but can also swallow you? Pride

-How come it takes so little time for a child who is afraid of the dark to become a teenager who wants to stay out all night?

- If it's true that we are here to help others, what are the others doing here?

-If you think about it, Adam had more trouble than any of the rest of us buying his Father a gift for Father's Day. I mean, what do you get somebody who's got everything?
