NOTES FROM PASTOR –

-Working hard overcomes a whole lot of other obstacles. You can have unbelievable intelligence, you can have connections, you can have opportunities fall out of the sky. But in the end, hard work is the true, enduring characteristic of successful people. Clays Mill Road Church of God, let's continue to work hard for the gospel's sake and for our church to grow. Be faithful!

-As we observe communion in our service today, dedicate and consecrate yourself to Him. As you do this make sure you give Him the most perfect praise you have within you!

-Our Prayer Covering Team is- Myrtle Zupp, Rev. Tom Atkins, Dessie Himes, Louise Spivey, Vernon Cornelius, Charlotte Hurst, Caz Ringley, Cathy Rhodus, Elizabeth Morrow, and Barbara Hutchman. If you have a prayer to be prayed, be sure you make one or more of the team aware of that need so they can join you in prayer.

SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK-

-After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 20:17-20 NIV)

POINTS TO PONDER-

-A real Christian is a person who can give his pet parrot to the town gossip.

-Both men grabbed for the check after eating lunch together. The man to get the check said, "Either you're losing your grip, or I don't know my own strength."

-The man who says he never had a chance never took a chance.

-It isn't always enough to be forgiven by others. Sometimes you have to learn to forgive yourself.

-Just going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in a garage makes you a car.

-Middle age is when broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist change places.

-If you have trouble getting your children's attention, just sit down and look comfortable.

-I've learned that no matter how bad your heart is broken the world doesn't stop for your grief.
